

Fabric Artistry:
Mastering pin-tuck

Kinga Földi, Hungary

Introduction

Kinga Földi is a textile artist, living and working in Budapest, Hungary

Techniques Involved:

The pin-tuck stitching technique often used in folk art and traditional costumes, has evolved into the defining element of her creations, forming the intricate scales of her sculptures. During the masterclasses Kinga reveals additional processes for transforming this pleated fabric into organic shapes.

Masterclass variations:

- One day masterclass

Participants will learn the basic techniques of shaping the pin-tucked fabric.

The fabric is either prepared by Kinga or the participants prepare it at home before the masterclass.

- Three day masterclass

During the three days participants will learn

- how to prepare the fabric
- sew the pin-tucks
- the basic techniques of shaping the pin-tucked fabric

Maximum participants

A maximum of 16 participants is required to ensure each individual receives personal guidance and fully understands the pin-tuck technique.

Recent masterclasses

- XTANT Textile Exhibition, Palma de Mallorca (Spain)
- TextielMuseum, Tilburg (the Netherlands)
- Hawar Textile Institute Oldeberkoop (the Netherlands)
- International Paper- andTextileart Biennial, Haacht (Belgium)
- Side event of the artists solo exhibition in Istanbul (Turkey)

Get in touch!

For more details or to book your spot:

kinga.foldi@gmail.com

www.foldikinga.hu

@kingafoldi

+36 20 325 2005

